Supervisors May Pass Sales Tax Ordinance Soon

Indications Are Opposition To Added Tax Now Is Weakening

There is a strong indication that when the Nevada County Board of Supervisors meet next Thursday they will pass the highly controversial county-wide sales tax ordinance.

While the measure will be opposed by Chairman H. G. Loehr, representing the eastern portion of the county, it is believed sufficient pressure has been brought to secure the required majority.

The district attorney was instructed at the meeting Monday to again prepare the ordinance. Previously the issue had reached this stage, but opposition from rural areas, including Truckee, resulted in its defeat by a three to two vote. Since that time, representatives of the two incorporated cities have gone all out in their efforts to get a favorable vote, even to the point of inaugurating city sales tax programs, in an effort to break down the strong objections.

The ordinance will not set out the split between the cities and county, but will simply provide the 1 percent assessment. Later agreements will be made between the two incorporated cities and county for the division of the money collected throughout the county.

Providing the ordinance is passed next week, it will become operative April 1. The county hopes to raise approximately $210,000 through the tax, but whether or not this will result in a cut from the current $2.05 basic rate remains to be seen. Many doubt that it will.

It is also still a doubtful question whether or not any of the sales tax money will be returned to Truckee, where a large percentage of it will be collected.

Time Extension On Land Row Sought

SACRAMENTO — Governor Knight Monday cleared the way for a special session of the legislature to take an indirect hand in the California Olympic Commission's land acquisition fight with Squaw Valley property owner Wayne Poulsen.

Included in a 28-point agenda for special session action, issued by Knight, was authorization for the lawmakers to extend the life of the commission's power of eminent domain. The legislature will determine the specific period.

The original act establishing the commission fixed December 31, 1958, as the date for terminating the commission's power to acquire property by court condemnation proceedings.

Paul Mason, Knight's legislative secretary, said the attorney general's office asked for repeal of the terminal date, and an extension of time, as a safeguard against the possibility that current condemnation proceedings in Placer County Superior Court cannot be concluded by the end of the year.

The legislation presumably will be handled by Senator Harold T. Johnson of Roseville, who has authorized all previous Olympic legislation.

The Donner Dancers meet tomorrow evening in the Veterans Hall and plan to dance at their home base this week.

NEW COMPLAINT IS FILED AGAINST EUER

A new complaint, this one naming Louis Euer and Burnal Euer as defendants, has been filed in the Truckee Judicial District Court by Felix T. Smith, charging grand theft.

A similar complaint against Louis Euer was dismissed by Judge F. W. Wilson several weeks ago when the prosecuting attorney failed to appear in court for the preliminary hearing.

The action is the outgrowth of the alleged theft of a Westinghouse lighting motor, six army blankets and an end table from the Frog Lake property of Smith last fall. Louis Euer has contended that he had permission to use the lighting plant.

ACQUIRES AGENCY

C. Z. Smith this week announced that he has taken over the insurance business of C. F. Tollefson. Former Tollefson clients are urged to communicate with Smith if there is any question regarding their present policies.

Varien Frey Wins Speaker Contest At Lions Meeting

Judges for the Lions Club's annual student speakers contest had a real difficult task last night in selecting the local winner and settled on Varien Frey as first and Luisa Sciutto and Nancy Watts tied for second place. All gave excellent talks on the subject of "Community Service—a Way of Life."

The judges were Cecil Edmunds, Lee Apple and Zeph Rose. The contest was held during the regular club meeting at Donner Lake Lodge.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Reams, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sciutto, Mrs. Muriel Frey, Miss Dorothea Frey, James Brehler, John McClurg of Marysville and Buzz Byerly of Sparks, zone chairman for the Lions.

The club voted $150 to help send the local high school football team to the Las Vegas tournament next week.

Donner Zoning Up For Hearing Soon

A delegation of property owners from Donner Lake is expected to attend the public hearing called by the Nevada County Planning Commission for Thursday, March 13, at Nevada City to discuss the proposed zoning ordinance for that area.

Cecil Edmunds of Truckee, chairman of the commission, said the purpose of adopting a zoning ordinance is to promote and protect public health, safety, peace, convenience and general welfare.

This, he said, is usually accomplished by the adoption of a zoning plan whereby various districts are established, specifying the uses of land and buildings permitted in that area; establishing height limits; requiring certain yards and other spaces; prescribing regulations for the erection, construction, alteration and maintenance of buildings and other requirements, and requiring that permits be secured for the use of lands in the zoned areas.

Such a plan, if adopted, will guide and control the future growth of the area. It will assist in protecting the character and social and economic stability within that area.

In a recent letter from L. D. Fraser, a planning engineer of Sacramento, he stated in brief:

"In the long run, any community must provide for itself. Its economy must be sound enough that the average property owner will invest in the improvement of his own property and support needed public improvements or the physical development of the area will deteriorate."

LOCAL PEOPLE WILL PLAY IN CONCERT

Victor McLane and his son, Tim, will play the double bass and the violin respectively in a concert to be presented at the University of Nevada in Reno by the Nevada Communtiy Symphony Orchestra Sunday at 4 p.m. in the new gymnasium building. This was announced by Rodney Mercado, the orchestra director.

SHOPPING CENTER AT TAHOE IS PROPOSED

AUBURN—County planning commissioners heard the first draft of an ordinance amendment which would provide a shopping center for the Lake Tahoe region.

A second draft is to be considered for recommendation by the commission March 14.

The amendment, read by Richard Tuttle, deputy district attorney, is aimed at creating a zoned commercial district where parking and traffic congestion could be reduced to a minimum.

State To Open Bid For Route 89 Job Early Next Month

$1,700,000 Project Is Now Offered To Bidders By State

State Senator Harold T. Johnson of Roseville said today he has been advised that the division of highways has called for bids on the improvement of State Sign Route 89 from 0.2 mile south of the Squaw Valley road to the Donner Creek underpass near Truckee. The bids for the contract are to be opened in Sacramento on April 2.

Squaw Valley will be the site of the 1960 Winter Olympic Games. State Sign Route 89 is the access road from Highway U.S. 40 to the Squaw Valley area. The highway is being improved to handle the increased traffic pressure expected at the time of the games.

The contract will call for widening the existing traveled way to a 44-foot all-paved highway. The section will be graded and plant-mixed surfacing will be placed on untreated base. In addition, the present 26-foot wide bridge over Squaw Valley will be windened to 44 feet. The project will improve 8.3 miles of roadway. Construction is scheduled for completion in the 1959 construction season.

The 1958-59 construction budget of the division of highways contains $1,700,000 for this project.

Fish Plant Will Be Same As For 1957

Approximately the same number of catchable trout that were planted in this area last year will be planted during the 1958 season.

This was the advise received by nearly 100 local sportsmen who attended a meeting at Capitol Hall Monday when officials of the department of fish and game attended to discuss plans for the current year.

The meeting was presided over by Frank Fox, president of the Truckee Outdoor Sportsmen, who turned the meeting over to George Warner, fisheries manager, who detailed the proposed plant.

The Truckee River will receive 60,000 catchable rainbows, while Donner Lake will have 40,000 rainbows and 125,000 Kokanee fingerlings. The Little Truckee is scheduled for 15,000 catchable rainbow while Prosser Creek will get 8000 and Donner Creek 6000.

Independence Lake is due for 60,000 cut throat, 10,000 rainbow and 25,000 Kokanee. These will be fingerlings.

Lake Tahoe will receive its usual 2,000,000 rainbow fingerlings, while scores of smaller lakes in the region will also be planted with the smaller trout.

No increase in the plant could be made this year since the additional license fees are not designed for that purpose immediately, the sportsmen were told.

SUNBEAMS

By WALTER M. BARRETT

There should be no difficulty encountered by the students of the Tahoe-Truckee High School in raising the $800 needed to finance the expenses of the basketball team to Las Vegas next week. The team has already brought considerable honor upon itself and the area through its participation in the northern conference games, being nosed out of first place by the far bigger high school at Reno. To prevent these boys from going on to still more honors through lack of funds would be a shame. The community they represent will certainly get far more in favorable publicity than the $800 needed. Everyone should purchase tickets to the benefit dinner the student body is sponsoring Saturday night and generous contributions to complete the fund should be forthcoming. Seldom does this area have the opportunity for such outstanding recognition and it will be too bad to let is pass. Let's all get behind this "On to Vegas" drive and see it through.

Truckee Man To Get CYA Position

Gov. Goodwin J. Knight Monday announced he intends to appoint his secretary, Douglas Barrett, as a member of the California Youth Authority Board to succeed H. Eugene Breitenbach, who resigned in September to become a superior court judge in Los Angeles County.

The appointment, contingent upon confirmation by the state senate, is for a term ending March 15, 1961. The position pays $16,500 a year.

Barrett joined the governor's staff on December 1, 1953, as assistant press secretary and has served since as appointment secretary, research secretary and assistant legislative secretary. Prior to coming to Sacramento he was co-publisher of the Sierra Sun at Truckee for several years following his discharge from the Air Force at the end of World War II.

During his residence in Nevada County he served two terms on the county probation committee, was active in the Community Methodist Church Sunday school, was adjutant and chaplain of the Truckee American Legion Post and took an active part in the reorganization of the local school districts into a joint unified district.

Barrett now makes his home in Sacramento with his wife and their four daughters.

New Compromise Offer Made For Lands At Squaw

Meeting Today May Decide Long Standing Fued Over Lands

A meeting was scheduled in San Francisco this morning between attorneys and officials of the California Olympic Commission and the Squaw Valley Land and Livestock Company for the purpose of discussing terms of a proposed compromise in a controversy over land in Squaw Valley needed for holding the 1960 winter Olympic games.

Wayne Poulsen, principal land owner in the valley this week submitted a 7-point compromise offer, which everyone concerned is hopeful will form the basis for a settlement out of court.

Poulsen has offered to rent the disputed area to the state if the latter will drop the condenmation action now pending. The letter was addressed to Raymond Williamsen, assistant attorney general and was from Archibald McDougall, attorney for the Poulsens.

Among other things, Poulsen is asking that the state give up its plan for using the valley for a proposed snow-compacted parking area and abandon plans for an open sludge type sewer disposal plant.

Poulsen has offered to sell 10 acres of needed land for $50,000 and seeks $2100 a year rental on other portions said to be needed for the conduct of the games.

Everyone concerned is hopeful that a compromise can be reached since the time element for construction is vital and the eventual outcome of the court action is uncertain.

Committee Gives Olympic Fund O.K.

Members of the senate armed services committee gave a sympathetic hearing to proposals that congress vote up to $4,000,000 to help finance the Winter Olympics in California, according to a press dispatch from Washington, D.C., this week.

"I've never seen the way greased for a bill like this one," Chairman Richard Russell of Georgia observed during a committee hearing. He and other committee members endorsed the idea of federal aid for the 1960 Winter Olympics to be held in Squaw Valley.

Russell and Senator John Stennis of Mississippi, however, suggested that the government might recapture part of any contribution if a profit is made after the games from a $3,500,000 arena and skating rink to be built by the State of California. An amendment to provide for repayment of federal funds in that event was ordered drafted.

Robert King, former assistant to Vice President Richard M. Nixon, is executive director of the organizing committee for the winter games.

Senator William F. Knowland, California, and a bipartisan group of senaors are sponsoring a bill which would permit use of armed forces in preparing "courses, field and rinks, maintain avalanche control and provide communications" for the games.

William H. Francis, Jr., assistant secretary of defense, told the committee army and navy troops, trained in polar exercises, would help on the project.

Senator Alan Bible of Nevada urged the federal contribution, saying California already has provided some $8,000,000 to build an Olympic village for participants. He said Nevada voted $200,000 and expects to provide another contribution.

Francis said 1000 participants and 200 newsmen from 47 foreign countries are expected to come here for the Winter Olympics.

Local Team Loses Final Game, But Goes To Tourney

by JOHN FIRPO

The Tahoe-Truckee Wolverines last week became the only team in TNT history to get into the playoff berths in the Nevada Zone Tournament. A so-called "Cinderella" team went into the tournament last Wednesday with the idea of going all the way; they almost did too.

The first night they eliminated the Douglas Tigers 53-37. Then Thursday they played the powerful "AA" Champs, the Carson City Senators. They bested Carson 65-56 and earned the right to play in the semi-finals and travel to Las Vegas. March 13, Friday, the Wolverines collected their third straight victory with a 60-54 win over the tough Sparks Railroaders. As a result of beating Sparks the Wolverines had earned the right to play the Reno Huskies for the zone championship. The Wolverines, after three nights of deadeye shooting, couldn't find the hoop Saturday as a determined Huskie squad defeated the Mountain Men 62-45 for the championship.

Coach Brehler's squad, whom he calls the best yet from this school, has earned more publicity and more credit than any past Wolverine squads combined.

Saturday following the game awards were presented, among, the teams for the tournament's most valuable players. Out of the 11 chosen two were from TNT those being Ken Vaughan and Floyd Cooper.

March 13 through 15 the Wolverines travel to Las Vegas with four other teams to play in the state tournament. Carson City, Sparks, Manogue, Reno and TNT will represent Western Nevada.

ANNIVERSARY OF SCOUTS OBSERVED

Girl Scout Troop, No. 132, signed up March 4 for swimming and horseback lessons to be held on Saturdays, beginning in April. The girls reviewed their tenderfoot requirements and the laws are promise.

Karen Walker was refreshment hostess following a short entertainment.

The 46th anniversary of the founding of the Girl Scouts is being observed this week from March 9 to March 15 throughout the United States, according to Mrs. Dave Rose, Truckee neighborhood chairman, pro tem.

One out of every seven girls of Girl Scout age in this country is a member of the world-wide organization and at this time special observances have been made in the churches and a general reviewing of the Promise and Laws within the individual troops.

BIG BUSINESS GAIN REPORTED AT LAKE

Listings in the Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book for 1958, reveal that business at Tahoe has increased 55 percent in the past five years, going from 40 listings in 1942 to 62 in 1957.

Two cities in Placer County showed a decrease, Colfax dropped from 62 to 51 for a 17.7 percent decline while Roseville showed a 10.1 percent decrease dropping from 227 to 204 listings.

Throughout the county, the increase was 3.3 was shown for the five-year period. Auburn had a 16.3 percent gain, Loomis a 16.7 percent increase. There were 837 businesses listed in the reference book, an increase of 27 over 1952, the book shows. The 47 counties of northern California showed a 2.3 percent gain.

STATE HIGHWAYS TO BE IMPROVED IN AREA

Portions of two state highways in Placer and Nevada Counties totaling 18.3 miles will be improved under a contract offered for bid today by the division of highways. The contract will cover the portion of State Sign Route 20 from 1.1 mile west of the junction with Washington road to Steep Hollow ravine and on Route 25 from its junction with U.S. 40 near Colfax to Grass Valley.

The bids will be opened in Sacramento on April 2.

Under the provision of the contract, a thin blanket of plant-mixed surfacing will be placed over the existing pavement. The primary purpose of the work is to improve the riding quality of the traveled way. The added depth of surfacing, in addition, will add some strength to the structural section and thereby help to preserve the existing pavement.

"On To Vegas" Is Motif Of Banquet Here On Saturday

Fund Needed To Send Team To Compete In State Tournament

"On to Vegas."

This is the battle cry of the whole community today as plans are being rushed to provide expenses so the Tahoe-Truckee Wolverine basketball team—runner-up in the Northern Nevada Conference "A" basketball tournament, can go to Las Vegas next week to participate in the state championships.

It will take only $800 to send the team and its officials to the tournament from Tuesday, March 11, through Saturday March 15. The unfortunate fact is the school is not permitted to pay the expense and the funds must be raised by the student body.

The Brockway Rotary Club at Kings Beach Monday night donated and pledged $276.50 to assist in sending the Tahoe-Truckee Wolverines basketball team to Las Vegas next week. The action followed a brief talk by John Corbin, district school superintendent. The individual members were enthusiastic in their response.

One event to provide a good share of the needed finances will be the "On to Vegas" banquet to be held at the high school cafeteria Saturday at 7:30 p.m. Tickets for the banquet are now on sale throughout the community at $2.50 per plate, but anyone who is missed may purchase a ticket at the door.

Principal John Corbin and Coach James Brehler are arranging for entertainment features to add to the enjoyment of the evening and a god time—a full $2.50 worth at least—is assured.

This event may not provide the full amount needed and contributions from local people will be appreciated.

The money is needed to provide transportation, meals and rooms for the team and officials.

Everyone is urged to join the "On the Vegas" march.

New Deputy Starts Work In Truckee

Johns came here from San Diego County last May and during the summer was employed by the forest service throughout this area. For the past several weeks he has been working on a voluntary basis with the other two deputies, Roy Waters and Emery Lander, to acquaint himself with the duties.

Johns' application was selected from among a number which had been filed with Sheriff Brown.

The new deputy is married and has a small daughter Patricia Ann.

GIRL SCOUT COOKIE SALE STARTS MAR. 14

All girls registered with the Sierra Nevada Girl Scouts will participate in the annual Girl Scout cookie sale which commences Friday, March 14 at 3 p.m.

This sale is conducted:

(1) To provide an opportunity for each girl Scout family to help support her organization. Community Chest or fund drives cannot finance entire Girl Scout programs.

(2) To earn a portion of the council budget, so that a better scouting program can be provided.

(3) To let the communities see the hundreds of girls who take part in the Girl Scout program.

All cookies are sold by direct sale. No advance orders are to be taken. Each girl is on her honor, and by being so, the girls start the sale together, thus giving each girl an equal opportunity in selling her quota of cookies.

Girl scouting is a family and community affair. Stand behind you Scouts. Support them through their cookie sale.

ASSESSED VALUE OF PROPERTY INCREASES

There is $116 in assessed value of taxable property in Nevada County this year for every $100 in such property five year ago, California Taxpayers' Association said today, making public its study of the five-year trend of property subject to local taxes in California counties.

Total value of taxable property in the county reached $37,130,730 for the present fiscal year, 1957-58, up $5,087,260, or 16 percent, from the $32,043,470 total for 1952-53, S. J. Arnold, general manager of the state-wide taxpayers' association, said.

This year's total taxable valuation in the county is up $869,380 or 2 percent from the $36,261,350 for 1956-57

Each cent of property tax rate levied throughout the county this year meant a tax charge of $3713, compared with $3204 levy from a cent of county-wide tax rate for 1952-53, and the $3626 levy from a one-cent county-wide tax rate for 1956-57, Arnold said.

State-wide, there is $151 of assessed value of taxable property in California this year for every $100 five years ago, the taxpayer study shows.

Total registration for 1957 in the state was 4,491,844, including 89,340 exempt registrations. This compared to 7,147,848 total vehicles, with 82, 149 exempt registrations, during 1956.

NEWS NOTES FROM TAHOE

by MYRTLE CARNELL

Tahoe Artists

The art group which I have mentioned several times in this column has taken the name of The Tahoe Artists, and will hold meetings every Tuesday evening at 7:30, and for the present the meetings will be held at the St. Nicholas Mission. The group would like to extend a welcome to any and all persons interested in art. Last week the group did quick still life sketches in charcoal and pastels, which they will do for several sessions, then they will go on to studies in lights and darks, landscaping, oils and the many other types of art mediums. When the organization blossoms fully they intend to have art shows, a workshop with personal cabinets, equipment, and plenty of working space. At the last meeting 11 attended and June Hampton was appointed chairman and can be reached at Juniper 3-3011 for further information. The group is sponsored by St. Nicholas Mission but is not a church activity and is open to everyone in the entire Lake Tahoe area. The only request is that you bring your own equipment and supplies. This type of organization is indeed a good asset to this community.

Birthday Party

Pat Bechdolt was guest of honor at a birthday lunch on Saturday, March 1, with spaghetti for the main dish. His guests were Theresa, Lisa, and Sandy Vanni, Mike Bechdolt, Terria Lee and Mike Carnell, Melinda Bechdolt. Ice cream and cake was enjoyed by all the little guests and balloons added a lot of fun. Sharon and Christine Bechdolt and Pat Vanni took care of the arbitrating.

Pittsburg Tournament

The Pittsburg tournament drew quite a few of our Tahoe City golfers. Leaving in a group directly from here were Bernie and Bill Bechdolt, Mary Ann and Bill Conners and Elsie and Carl Bechdolt. Several others on vacation in the vicinity joined the golfers for golfing and a merry time.

A Starr Is Born

Starr Ann Beckman made her entrance into the world at 6 a.m. on Friday, February 28, and weighed a good 7 pounds, ½ ounce. The little lady received her name from her brother, David. Her parents, Bob and Maxine Beckman have already had their lives brightened by the appearance of this star and according to Father Bob she will also shine in skiing. Dr. Prescott attended and the hospital was Tahoe Forest. Mother and baby returned home on Monday and both are doing fine. The grandparents will be up to see their new addition at Easter time.

Dog, Man's Best Friend?

Gary Henry was not too sure of this age old adage the other day when a dog tried to prove there are exceptions to rules. Gary was bitten on the leg, and was taken in to Dr. Nelson for immediate treatment. He is doing fine now. This should make all of us realize that the ruling passed by the health department about dogs having to have shots, is a very good one and is for the protection and safety of us all. Glad your feeling OK, Gary.

Locals Break Legs, Too

Two of our local ski enthusiasts wound up with broken legs over this past weekend. Dorothy McCaskie was trying to help out a photographer taking picture at Squaw when she and one of the other girls collided. Her ski was caught by the other girl's and this resulted in a broken leg and some pulled ligaments. Dorothy will be missed on the hill as she is usually out every day enjoying this wonderful sport. Another Tahoe City resident, Judy Thatcher, suffered a very bad break and had to have surgery performed. We hope you'll be up and around before too long even if it is with a cast. Pat Vanni is also sporting a cast these days, but this was not due to skiing and is not a broken leg. Pat being her efficient self and helpful at the Tahoe Forest Hospital last week turned too quickly and injured her leg. Well, Pattie, you're in style to say the least, seriously take it easy. We need good nurses like you.

Bible Study

Sessions in Bible study are now being held at the home of Betty Baker under the direction of Rev. Roy Rhoades of the Truckee Bible School. Anyone interested in attending please contact Betty. The meetings are held every Thursday night and offer an excellent means of becoming acquainted with the greatest book ever written. At the present the group is studying the book of John.

A Weekend Trip

Jean and Al Henry returned to the lake Monday after a very enjoyable trip to the city. The couple drove down Friday evening and spent Saturday and Sunday enjoying the change of climate and scenery.

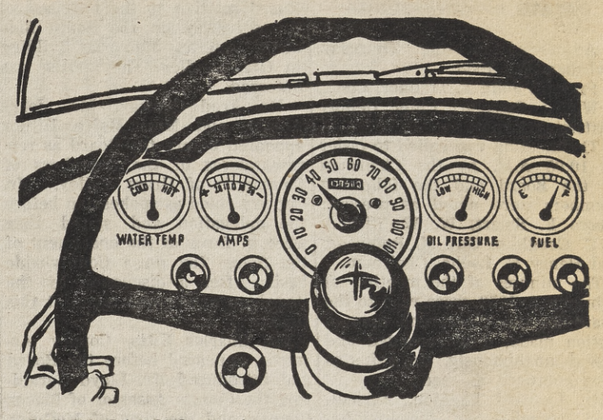

Night Skiing

A group of skiers from Squaw Valley arranged for a session of night skiing at Granlibakken last Wednesday night, and about 40 persons turned out. The braver and more sturdy of the group took many a trip up and down the slopes lighted with lights, but many just enjoyed the eats and the comfort of the roaring fireplace.

P.T.A. Founders Day

A special afternoon meeting was held on Thursday, the 27th of February at 2:30 in honor of Founder's Day. Carolyn Henry presided and the Boy Scouts began he meeting with the flag ceremony. A nice reading was given on the meaning of Founder's Day by Gregg Moore. The two main points of interest discussed at the meeting were: The need of a better ski program for the children than was given this year, and a discussion of the need of more funds for the children's swimming lessons this coming summer. The Red Cross funds were not up to the amount expected. Therefore, if the children are to be given free Red Cross swimming lessons again this summer more money must be raised. At least $150 is needed to obtain the program. It's sure that everyone will agree this is a very worthwhile program, as most of our children spend most of the summer in or near the water. Refreshments of cake, brownies and coffe was enjoyed by the group.

CHECK GAUGES—By keeping a regular watch on instrument panels, many serious mechanical troubles frequently can be averted, advises the California State Automobile Association. If oil gauge or signal light reveals pressure is down, it may indicate that the oil pump has quit operating. And if the water temperature goes beyond the boiling point, that, too, is a signal to take remedial action.

CHANGE ORDER FOR UNIFORMS MODIFIED

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—An order calling for changes in uniforms of California's Highway Patrolmen—which had been called everything from "operation fancy pants" to "comic opera attire"—has been modified to include only piping on trousers and blouses and new caps.

The order, issued in December, and effective May 1, had caused considerable furore around the capitol, including blasts from several legislators. Complaints reportedly stemmed from CHP members themselves.

Estimates of what the uniform changes called for in the original order would cost ran from $19, as estimated by CHP Commissioner B. R. Caldwell, to one patrolman's guess of more than $400. Originally the order also called for new shoes, socks, ties, shirts, raincoats, and gun belt assemblies.

Caldwell said he had met with a committee from the California Association of Highway Patrolmen.

"There was no issue concerning the propriety of the order or the authority for its issuance," he said. "Certain major points of concern had been under study by the patrol for a period of time prior to the meeting and appropriate adjustments were provided in a directive released to the field January 20."

TNT TIDINGS

by NANCY WATTS

Las Vegas, here we come! As everyone knows by now, our basketball team is going to the state tournament in that city. Although our first game will be played at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, March 13, many of the spirited students at TNT are planning to attend. Practically every means of transportation will be used to get there, including buses, private cars, and trains. With the school spirit we have, there should certainly be a tremendous rooting section for Tahoe-Truckee in far-away Las Vegas. We surely hope so.

The Lions Club speakers performed last Tuesday and Wednesday evenings for the clubs in Kings Beach and Truckee, respectively. Bob Williams, Beverly Gunkel, and Marilyn Plavel spoke in front of the Kings Beach Lions Club, while Varien Frey, Luisa Sciutto, and Nancy Watts were in Truckee on Wednesday. The winners are not known yet but will be in this section probably next week. Good luck to everyone!

by MYRTLE CARNELL

TAHOE CITY — Although the weather was bitter cold and the wind was blowing last Sunday this did not stop our junior skiers from jumping at the meet sponsored by Bill Bechdolt at Granlibakken. Those assisting with the meet were: Dinty Moore and Ollie Henrickson, markers; Howard Carnell and Jack Starratt, judges; Robbie Moore, recorder; Rusty Rustad, starter and Dick Carnell on flag.

The ages ranged from 12 to under 8 years. In the 11-12 group were: first place, Gregg Moore and second place, Parkey Bechdolt.

TAHOE ROTARY CLUB VIEWS NOVEL FILMS

TAHOE CITY—Members and guests of Tahoe City Rotary Club were entertained at the February 25 dinner meeting at Tahoe Inn by the showing of a movie film entitled "The Mayas Through the Ages. The film in color showed the primitive life of the Mayas, their crumbling shrines and other edifices of elaborate architecture.

The Mayas who occupied Yucatan and other parts of Mexico as early as the year A.D. 672 were remarkable for the hieroglyphic writings and murals, much of which has survived jungle growth and destruction by the elements.

Although the Mayas are said to have never been conquered, most of their original arts have been lost and their numbers began to dwindle after the Spanish Conquest until today there are only a few hundred Mayas living. They live the same primative life of their forfathers.

Club members welcomed home after vacations were: Steve Korich, Bill Wilt, Tony Donadio, Jim Martin and Bill Vernon. The visitors were: Robert Peterson and R. B. Scott, Jr., both telephone company officials, who were guests of George Selkirk, local manager of Pacific Tel. & Tel. Bob Tonini was entertaining Carl Bechdolt Jr., local golf club operator.

Jim Martin was program chairman. Warren Porter presided.

OFFICIAL 1960 OLYMPIC EMBLEM—The official symbol for the 1960 Olympic Winter Games at Squaw Valley has been selected from among more than 600 preliminary designs and will be imprinted on posters, windshields and baggage stickers for world-wide distribution, Robert Di Giorgio, Executive Vice-President of the Organizing Committee's Olympic Winter Games, revealed this week. The symbol is in three colors.

EMBLEM ADOPTED FOR 1960 OLYMPICS

The official symbol for the VIII Olympic Winter Games at Squaw Valley, 1960, has been selected from among more than 600 preliminary designs and will be imprinted on posters, windshields and baggage stickers for world-wide distribution, Robert DiGiorgio, executive vice-president of the games organizing committee, announced today.

The symbol, available in a combination of colors or in black and white, consists of three overlapping triangles forming a background for the traditional five-ring emblem of the Olympic games. Encircling the triangles are the words, "VIII Olympic Winter Games, 1960, California."

A primary reason for the selection of this free-form design was its flexibility. It can be used in reduced sizes, for labels, buttons and rings, and in large sizes, suitable for decorations at the ice arena and Olympic Village.

Hundreds of the designs submitted dealt with California outline maps, bears, skiiers and ice skaters. Many of these, however, were not adaptable for multi-purpose use.

Thousands of posters and stickers will be distributed to travel agencies, airlines, steamship companies, diplomatic personnel, ski resorts, ski clubs, ski shops and other international outlets.

The materials will be available in five languages—English, French German, Italian and Spanish.

The emblem was designed by the art department of the Knollin Advertising Agency, San Francisco.

EDITOR'S NOTE: We received the following letter from Robert Bowers of Reno, a former Truckee resident and a graduate of the local school. The letter speaks for itself and we are glad to offer it as a testimonial to the sportsmanship of the Tahoe-Truckee athletes.

Dear Walt:

This past week Tina (Mrs. Bowers) and I along with about a hundred other ex-Truckeeites had the pleasure to watch and root for the Tahoe-Truckee High School basketball team in the annual western zone tournament.

We had been told by personal friends who were members of the officials association that Tahoe-Truckee was one team that they liked to officiate for because they always showed outstanding sportsmanship to the opposing team and the officials. Since the team started up the ladder in the recent tournament many parents of local high school athletes told us of incidents of good sportsmanship involving their boys during the last couple of years when competing with Tahoe-Truckee.

After hearing so many praises of this kind and observing them firsthand at the four games in the tournament it is obvious that Coach Jim Brehler is teaching the boys more than how to win games.

The chamber of commerce in the school district should be thankful to Jim Brehler for he is creating more goodwill in the surrounding communities than could be bought with several thousand dollars.

It was certainly no disgrace for the team to be beaten by the more experienced Reno team on their hottest night of this season. If there had been a trophy offered for outstanding sportsmanship at the tournament there is no doubt that Tahoe-Truckee would have it in their trophy case now.

I hope that the school will keep turning out teams with the same spirit and we will be proud to cheer them on, win or lose.

Wishing the Tahoe-Truckee team luck and success in Las Vegas, I remain,

A Proud Fan,
BOB

Conservation Week will be observed throughout the state from March 7 to 14. And this is a good time for all of us to take steps to preserve California's natural resources. Conservation authorities pointed out that all Californians have a big stake in this, and there are many things individuals can do. We can support tree-planting programs that beautify cities and rural areas. We can conserve water at both ends of the pipe line. That means protecting water sources and not wasting water. We can practice "outdoor good manners" and prevent the littering up of the cities, roads, camp grounds and countrysides. And we can all give support to the conservation clubs that are working to safeguard our soil, minerals, forests, water and wildlife.

Care for a look at some unusual phones? Here are a couple of experimental types. You'll agree they're quite a change from the phones you use every day. So we've asked a number of people to try them out at home for a month. In the foreground is a new-style bedroom phone. The phone at left is even more unusual. The dial's built right into the handset. Naturally, it's too early to tell if either of these phones will ever go into regular service. But our aim is to find out what telephone users think of them. For what we learn from tests like this will help set the style of your future telephone.

You know that wire that runs from your phone to the pole outside? It's called a drop wire. With lots of new phones going in, you've probably seen phone men hooking up these wires. Most always, they have a few small pieces left over. Do they throw these pieces away? Not at all! These "leftovers" are put together into lengths of wire we can use somewhere else. Just like a budget-minded housewife, we make good use of our scraps!

Our Community

Yes, we have a community club, i's named the North Tahoe Community Club, and it needs bolstering up for the benefit of the newcomers who would like changes, a good place to air these wishes would be at the club meetings. The many benefits that the new-comers and told-timers received were put here by the very club. Constant work by its members was responsible for most of them, but it is so easy to enjoy these things and at the same time criticize and grumble, so let's join the club and discuss our problem if we have any? Get in touch wth Steve Port, the hard working president. Let's keep our community at it's best. It's worth it. Well that's up to you and you.

Church Dinner

Through the courtesy of the management and employes of the Crystal Bay Club the dinner party donated to the Community Methodist Church of Kings Beach was a huge success. Well over a hundred members and friends attended benefitting the church something over $200. Jimmie Chastain acted as master of ceremonies. Rev. Earl Langguth sang several numbers as did a group of members. The whole community wishes to thank the club for their generosity.

KNIGHT RAPS ENGLE IN SENATE CONTEST

Broad-gauge representation of interests of all the people of California versus narrow political sectionalism will be the major issue of California's 1958 senatorial campaign, Gov. Goodwin J. Knight declared last night as he formally launched his campaign for the United States Senate.

Speaking before more than 1200 persons attending a $100-a-plate campaign inaugural dinner at San Francisco's Sheraton-Palace Hotel, Knight said that the issue was sharply silhouetted by the contrast between his record and that of Congressman Clair Engle.

As lieutenant governor for seven years and governor for five years, Knight said "I have consistently tried to address myself to the welfare, needs and problems of all the people of all sections of California."

"My opponent at the general election in November will be a man whose entire political career has been characterized by a narrow provincial outlook."

"I am an enthusiastic champion of the free enterprise system," Knight also declared labelling Engle as a man "motivated by his personal anti-free enterprise philosophy."

"Mr. Engle, as congressman from the second district, has treated the rest of California as though it was foreign territory, to the embarrassment I am sure of most of his constituents. I believe that you will agree with me that we want no public officials in California who look upon any of our people as step-children," he emphasized.

The governor cited as "sectionalism in its most selfish and reckless form," Engle's 1955 claim-jumping raid on San Francisco's historic water rights on the Tuolumne River ,a move by the congressman which would have transferred the city's 40-year-old rights on the river to a small water district in Engle's district.

"If Congressman Engle had had his way, the needs of a city of three quarters of a million people would have been ruthlessly sacrificed for the whim of a single congressman," Knight asserted.

He charged that Engle's political irresponsibilty on issues affecting Los Angeles and other cities of southern California had inflicted lasting damage upon that area, pointing up Engle's support of the Upper Colorado Project when virtually all of California's responsible officials and public agencies had united in opposition to the development under terms which would discriminate against California's interest.

"It seems unbelievable—but it is true—that one of the leading roles in a successful effort to infringe upon California's desperately vital rights to Colorado River water for the benefit of other states has been played by a California congressman—none other than Mr. Engle," Knight said.

Largely because of Engle, Knight said that part of the battle had been lost in congress and construction of one phase of the project, the Glen Canyon Dam, is now in progress.

"It is almost impossible to predict the full adverse effect completion of this dam . . . will have on the economic welfare of the people of southern California," Knight stated.

As for himself, Governor Knight declared that "America is strong because it is free . . . I believe in the inherent dignity of the individual . . . I believe in the greatest possible degree of participation by all our people in our representative form of government."

And he warned that "the only real threat to our free way of life comes from timorous folk among us who in every emergency,, real or fancied, would have our government hit the panic button. We must not ever sacrifice the individual initiative system, which has made us prosperous and free, for the very totalitarian methods we abhor."

The audience of business, labor, political and civic leaders—friends of Knight who came from throughout the state to lend their active support to his candidacy—also were entertained by comedian Jack Benny as master of cermonies and Broadway comedienne Carol Channing, television actress and singer Mary Costa, the Benny's show's Sportsmen quartet, the St. Augustine's men's choir from Oakland and Ray Hackett and his orchestra.

Frank N. Belgrano, Jr., and Cyril Maginin, who also head the Knight for senator finance committee, were co-chairmen of the fund raising dinner.

TB CONTROL WILL BE STEPPED UP IN STATE

The greatest emphasis in volunteer tuberculosis control programs over the next three years will be on basic research, the California Tuberculosis and Health Association announced today.

More Christmas Seal dollars will be poured into California and national research studies than ever before in the volunteer movement's 50-year history, said President Marian Perry.

While a "crash program" in TB research is neither desirable nor practical, there are 41 new investigations we want to get started in California, in addition to the 20 projects currently under way, Mrs. Perry explained.

Nine top-flight tuberculosis specialists who recently surveyed California's needs and possibilities in basic TB research, presented their findings to the CTHA board of directors at its January meeting, recommending support of the 41 new investigations. Funds will be earmarked for as many of them as possible, based on final returns of the 1957 Christmas Seal sale now being completed by California's 57 local TB associations. The CTHA and National Tuberculosis Association also support California projects.

"We don't expect a 'crash through' from any one of them," Mrs. Perry added. "Unlike the polio virus, TB germs have one of the highest immunities known. They're tough, durable and slow-moving. Whether we like it or not, we can't abandon our many-phased programs in favor of pure research. We'll continue to 'cover the waterfront' but with all the added support for research we can afford," she said.

More than $100,000 in Christmas Seal funds were spent in California last year, supporting basic research in TB projects at the University of California, Olive View and Barlow sanatoriums in Los Angeles, Stanford University and Stanford Hospital, San Francisco, and Veterans Administration Hospital, Oakland.

Beach Survey At Tahoe Is Ordered

AUBURN — Placer County supervisors last week hired Norman Andregg, Auburn surveyor, to survey Lake Tahoe beaches in what the board called the first step in reclaiming public beaches from encroachment by private owners.

Andregg was hired to check and stake beaches in the old Woodmere Subdivision, located near Kings Beach. While the board last year went on record as requesting the survey of all disputed beaches in Placer County portion of the lake, Andregg was limited in his work until the cost of the job could be determined.

The supervisors opened a campaign last year to stop private owners from claiming what the board called public beaches, after the North Tahoe Community Club, Inc., complained lake front owners are infringing upon the rights of the general public.

A previous survey of the lake front, ordered by the board, was halted in November by the death of County Surveyor Carter Sawyer.

Andregg was instructed to survey the beach and put in large stakes to mark the property lines.

"Then we'll get big signs and post it as a public property," Al B. Broyer declared. "If the property owners up there think they own the beach, let them sue us.

"If we win in Woodmere, my opinion is the owners in other places will retreat and let us have our beaches."

Boyer pointed out subdivision maps filed in the past show dedicated beaches, parks and roads running along the beaches. He said some of the property owners have arbitrarily extended their property lines through this public property to the water line.

"Some of these people are continuing to build on public land," said Chairman Frank Paoli. "It's about time we settled this problem."

Last September the board placed a ban on the issuance of building permits for lake front areas in the Woodmere or Woodvista subdivision, Tahoe Vista No. 2 Subdivision and Carnelian Bay Subdivision. The action was taken, the supervisors said, to stop property owners from building on what the board claims is public property.

Andregg is not expected to begin his surveying work until after the snow at the lake melts. He said he will charge his reguular fee of $15 per hour for a three-man crew to do the surveying and $5 per hour for office work.

He was told by Broyer to contact deputy sheriffs at the lake if he ran into any difficulty with property owners during the survey.

Station Robbed

Approximately $100 was stolen from the Oil City Service Station of Ken Gordon sometime Sunday night. A window in the station was forced, according to Deputy Sheriff Emery Lander and the cash was removed from a drawer. Nothing else was reported missing.

HIGH HOPES—California's 1958 Easter Seal girl, 10-year-old Pamela Schmidt of San Rafael, shows Gov. and Mrs. Goodwin J. Knight the roller skate she hopes some day to use instead of her crutches. Pamela visited the Governor the day he issued proclamation urging California residents to contribute generously to 25th annual Easter Seal fund appeal for crippled children. The campaign opens March 6, continues through Easter, April 6. Pamela represented 47 county affiliates of California Society for Crippled Children and Adults in calling on the Governor.

As tsey approached the location, Carrillo told police, Rodriquez hit him on the head with a rock and knocked him to the pavement.

Carrillo fought back as his assailant attempted to go through his pockets.

BUSINESS UP WITH EARNINGS DOWN, SAYS TELEPHONE CO.

Business activity—up. Earnings—down.

That was the story of Pacific Telephone for 1957 as shown in the company's annual report released today by President Mark R. Sullivan.

Sullivan reported that 1957 brought higher revenues and bigger investment. But it also brought higher expenses and taxes . . . and a lower return on money invested in the company."

Telephone gain in the five Pacific west states served by the company and its subsidiary, Bell of Nevada, was 386,000. At year's ed, there were 6,653,000 telephones in service of which 5,245,000 were in California.

Total construction for the year came to $424 million or $1.7 million for each working day, a new record for the third straight year. This boosted total investment above $2.2 billion, up 16.6 percent. Commenting on the size of the constructiong program, Sullivan said it represented "a big vote of confidence in the future of the states we serve."

Earnings per share of common stock declined to $8.59, compared with $9.57 in 1956 and $9.82 in 1955. This was a return on average invested capital of 6.02 percent. Dividends continued at the annual rate of $7.

Total revenues rose by $72 million, an increase of 9.1 percent. But expenses climbed even more sharply—rising $52 million or 9.8 percent due to what Sullivan described as "the rising tide of prices for labor, materials, growth money."

Additions to the payroll and wage increases raised over-all wage costs by almost $34 million. Telephone employment advanced to 92,521—"more people than any other telephone in the country."

Colored telephones and residence extensions increased in popularity in 1957. The company reported installation of 450,000 colored telephones and 132,000 resident extensions for the year.

"Nowadays, our customers need and want more than basic telephone service,' Sullivan explained. "They want special features, a communications 'package tailored to the needs of modern home and industry."

The number of telephone customers who can dial most of their long distance calls direct doubled during the year. Now 1,200,000 customers in 100 western cities are included in the direct distance dialing network.

Sullivan stressed the relationship between good earnings and the ability to raise new capital for expansion:

"We will need to raise growth money in every year of the foreseeable future—money in amounts of hundreds of million each year. This growth money, in the steady flow required, can be obtained on reasonable terms if healthy earnings are maintained."

LOCAL DRIVER HELD BLAMELESS IN MISHAP

RENO—A 38-year-old jaywalking visitor to Reno was hospitalized with serious head injuries late Friday night after he stepped into the path of a westbound auto near the intersection of Fourth and Virginia streets.

Police identified the pedestrian as Harvey L. Baldwin, of San Rafael, Calif. He was admitted to Washoe Medical Center for emergency treatment and transferred to the Veterans Hospital.

Driver of the auto was Rolland G. Gautsche, a 22-year-old service station manager from Truckee.

Gautsche said he was driving not more than 20 miles an hour when Baldwin stepped into the right front of the car on Fourth street just west of the intersection. Two passengers in his auto verified his account of the accident.

The impact knocked Baldwin under the rear bumper of a car parked on the north side of Fourth street.

The injured man was charged with jaywalking. Gautsche was not cited.
